

1. The seal shall be partially lifted with regard to Relator for thirty (30) days for the sole purpose of allowing him to seek and confer with new counsel. Any disclosures by Relator pursuant to this Order shall be limited to disclosures communications made for the purpose of seeking new counsel.
2. That any individual to whom Relator makes disclosures regarding this matter is bound by the provisions of the seal and, whether that individual is retained or is not retained as counsel by Relator, is not permitted to disclose his or her knowledge of the case to anyone, including but not limited to Defendant.
3. That Relator shall present a copy of this Order to any individual that he may consult regarding representation and inform the prospective attorney that he or she is bound by the terms of the seal.
4. That the partial lifting of the seal shall end after thirty (30) days and that the case shall return to full seal absent further order of the Court.
